

Good Seed Design Compensation Agreement 2007

This document is intended to clarify the compensation policy of Aric Wickliff for Good Seed Design. By signing this document, both the payee (Customer) and payment recipient (Aric Wickliff for Good Seed Design) agree to the following terms.

All prices are subject to increase based on the following circumstances:

- Rush orders
- Extended turnaround time due to client delay.
(i.e. no feedback on design) – Add $10 for each occurrence.
- Extended wait period for payments due – Add $5 for every day past due.
- Additional variations of completed design requested after final design approval.

PAYMENT POLICY:

Projects $100 and under are to be paid in full before designing begins.

Projects over $100 require 50% down payment before designing begins.

Extended project turnaround time due to client delay may result in unscheduled payments being made on balance due.

Example: (If balance due is $200 and project cannot be completed in a timely fashion due to client delay, the client may be asked to make two 50% payments on the amount of balance due. Payment schedule will be negotiated.

Payments may be made by check, cash or online via credit/debit card. Online payments require an additional .06 cents per dollar for processing fees. (Make checks out to Good Seed Design)

- Final payment is made when project is complete. Payment must be received before the final completed project is delivered to the payee.
